“We worked with Delia Simonetti for our Special Mode Issue in September 2014. The subject was a variation on the mood of Christine and The Queens (singer). Delia's shoot was great. She putted a great atmosphere on the set and totally understood how to slightly move Christine from her image, without betraying her. That was a great collaboration.” - Geraldine Serratia, editor in chief of Les Inrockuptibles, Paris (France)

“Delia Simonetti is a professional commercial, fashion and beauty videographer and photographer who is careful and punctual in deadlines.

Working with her is always a refreshing experience, she always opens new doors for creative approaches.

She's able to work well in team, she usually has an interesting vision of projects and she always finds ways to keep the team inspired.

I highly recommend working with her.” - Romina Piperno, producer at Mondadori Portfolio, Milan (Italy).
