

Joshua Williams

Freelance Editor

Profile

A creative and forward-thinking Film & Television Production graduate with a passion for post-production. I take pride in being able to tell exciting stories through the art of editing and have 4+ years using Avid Media Composer and Adobe Premiere Pro.

Experience

Cajun Rules

York / 2017

Editor and Colourist for my third year university project. A gritty social realism drama with a character driven narrative which I subsequently won the Best Post-Production award for at my final year awards ceremony.

Furnace Festival

Leeds / 2017

Camera Operator for the Furnace Festival performance at West Yorkshire Playhouse which showcased local LGBTQ talent.

SASH Charity Promotion

York / 2015

Editor and Sound Recordist for a video advertising the annual charity sleep out organised by SASH.

Education

Ba(Hons) Film & Television Production, York St. John University

September 2014 - June 2017

The course developed many transferable skills such as meeting tight deadlines, working in group settings and also performing to a high standard individually. I specialised in editing during my three years studying and became hugely familiar with Avid Media Composer and Adobe Premiere Pro.

Employment History

Sales Associate at River Island, Leeds, United Kingdom

July 2017 - Present

Details

07791565362

joshpwills@gmail.com

Links

Editing Showreel

Skills

Avid Media Composer

Adobe Premiere Pro

Camera Operation

Adobe Photoshop

Adobe After Effects

Blogging

Hobbies

Travelling and creating travel videos, cinema, blogging (film/tv/gaming), photography, casual gaming.