Recent Work History:

Video Artist/Motion Graphics
Oppolis Software
Provide a series of explanation motion graphics videos to accompany the website (Codemakr). Each animation was to assist in the understanding of children and students in making their own gadgets using computer code and digital technologies.

Freelance designer/
Through justincarrington.com
I have set about establishing myself as a freelance Motion Designer. I intend to develop and explore my skills through graphics and continually develop in all areas. My most recent work was to work along side a Russian design agency and create 2 music concert videos for the musical artist Anita Tsoy.

Graphic designer/Animator
Birmingham Metropolitan college
Selected by the college director to assist in the relaunch and rebranding of the college from Mathew Boulton College to the Birmingham Metropolitan College. Large format banners were designed for the exteriors whilst wall graphics were displayed for the interiors as well as several animations.

Senior Designer/Unpaid
WemakeArt(Freelance Studio)
I was offered the role of Senior Designer at WeMakeArt, a freelance studio in Birmingham run by my tutor Adam Guy. At WeMakeArt we set about producing personal and experimental work across both print and motion graphics. We continue to challenge the design process in all areas. Our most recent work was for the physical theatre production, titled - Fear of the Queer - written and directed by Hannah Phillips.

Technican/Facilitator/Teacher-PT
Birmingham Metropolitan College.
After graduating I was asked to come on board and help support and teach at Birmingham Metroplitan College, Feed Studio Millennium Point.
As part of the design team my responsibilities included supporting classes and teaching students and covering lessons as well as offering personal tuition allowing for students to feel confident and supported in their work.

Fluid Design/ Placement/Unpaid
I was given the opportunity to come on board and use my experience with animation and cinema 4d to create the company show reel along with animations for the website to celebrate their 15th Birthday.
