

Lewis SOMERVILLE

FREELANCE EDITOR

I have a First Class Degree in Editing and Post Production (BA Hons) from Ravensbourne University, London. I am based in London and have experience working with a whole range of brands, from small production companies to large international organisations & media outlets. I have extensive knowledge with the Adobe Creative Suite, especially Premiere Pro and After Effects. I also possess a great understanding of Photoshop, Illustrator and Dreamweaver. I have an excellent work ethic and I never provide an end product that's nothing short of perfect, and meets every one of my clients needs.

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Contiki / Offline Editor

Contiki Holidays are a travel company who creates lot of online content to promote their specialised holiday packages. My role has involved editing fresh content for their social accounts and online advertising clips. Re-editing old videos with new branding, and working alongside the marketing team to ensure we achieved the highest quality content possible.

IET / Offline Editor

I worked with the IET for approximately 6 weeks, working through a wide variety of projects they had taken on. These included award ceremonies, promotional videos, conferences, and more. This role involved some online editing as well when required.

Lush Digital / Editor and After Effects Artist

Lush Digital brought me in to work on various edits, as well as an After Effects heavy project, that was on a strict deadline.

VICE / Assistant Editor

I have completed various jobs for VICE, using Adobe Premiere Pro and Adobe After Effects, carrying out tasks such as creating and implementing subtitles, making videos suitable for different online platforms (Twitter, Facebook etc), and ensuring offline edits are prepared and ready for the online stage.

VICE / Internship

I completed two weeks at VICE as an Intern, where I was shown how everything runs in each department, as well as being used for my own skills as; an assistant, offline, and online editor.

Detail Films / Assistant Editor

In this role I assisted the lead editors at Detail Films by preparing footage and project files. A lot of file management was involved in this role and communication was key with each individual editor.

Rich Tea Films / Video Editor & Motion Graphics Designer

Rich Tea Films hired me as a motion graphics artist, where I used Adobe After Effects to create a two minute video for one of their clients, to be used at their own company conference.
