I am a London based Videographer and Editor with previous experience in film, video and broadcast television. I am a highly creative individual with a great interest in television and film production and feel that through this role I will be able to work with more corporate clients and develop engaging and exciting videos. During my time as a Videographer I have developed my Camera skills, particularly with DSLR's but stills feel that I can still learn and apply my skills to different kinds of productions. I am a highly organised individual with excellent communication skills - both written and spoken - and am confident communicating via email, telephone and face to face. I have excellent I.T. skills and am able to learn and adapt to new softwares rather quickly. I welcome each and all opportunity to learn and develop my skills.
